Department of Justice
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Herewith is a letter dated August 29, 1962, with attachment, from Congressman Frank M. Karsten concerning a communication he received through the mails from the "American Commando Army".

The subject communication was postmarked at Washington, D. C., on August 21, 1962, but does not show a return address. We have no record of prior complaints regarding the American Commando Army.

In view of the subversive nature of the communication mailed by the American Commando Army, we are forwarding it to you for necessary attention.

A copy of our letter advising Congressman Karsten of this referral is attached for your information.

Sincerely yours,

(b)(6); (b)(7)(C)
